Brief Description of the Organization

Safe Harbor Easton is a program-based homeless shelter that operates a co-located day program for homeless and low-income members of the community. Residents of our shelter program receive in-house case management and wrap-around services, in addition to our three-phase behavioral modification program, ARISE. Our residents' meals, personal care needs and transportation needs are also provided for.

Safe Harbor houses 38 single, adult men and women each night and provides upwards of 13,870 shelter nights annually, in addition to operating an emergency cold-weather Warming Center from December until March. Our drop-in day program serves 60-80 individuals and families daily for breakfast and lunch, and works to meet the basic human needs of all participants.

During their stay at Safe Harbor, our residents progress through the phases of our ARISE (Accountability, Recovery, Initiative, Self-Sufficiency and Education) program. The first phase consists of 66 foundation-building classes in areas such as budgeting, life skills, conflict resolution, relationship skills, principles of recovery, stress management, mindfulness, self-discovery, gardening and cooking/nutrition.

Our on-site Peace Garden plays a critical role in our ARISE program. It is the site of our gardening classes and some of our mindfulness and self-discovery classes in the warmer months. Additionally, it provides all of the produce for our cooking and nutrition classes for the bulk of the spring, summer and early fall.

Summary of the Proposal

Project Description

- Statement of the need

One of the major issues that homeless and low-income members of our community face is access to food, specifically nutritious food. The fact of the matter is that the cheapest foods on the market are often the most nutrient-poor. Nutritionally devoid but cheap, fillers and sugars make up much of the inexpensive food that the population we serve has access to. Barriers to accessing nutritious food and produce in our population include: the high cost of these foods, transportation to places that sell them, lack of yard space to garden, lack of gardening knowledge and lack of knowledge of how to prepare these foods. Many of the homeless and low-income individuals we serve live in areas identified as "food deserts", meaning that there are no places to buy fresh, nutritious foods within accessible (walking) distance. The Lafayette College Veggie Van – which our Peace Garden provides some produce for as well – is a project run by Lafayette College that brings produce from urban gardens to food deserts in Easton, and a response to the staggering number of neighborhoods in our city that fall into the food desert category. Food is a vital part – if not the most influential part – of a person's health. Poor eating and nutrition can aggravate mental health conditions, cause chronic health issues and impact an individual's ability to be self-sufficient and successful. Therefore, simply providing meals to our homeless and low-income populations is not enough. The quality and content of that food has huge implications for their future success.

- How the proposal addresses the need

Our Peace Garden is an urban garden located at Safe Harbor Easton. Every individual who attends our day program walks through our Peace Garden on their way in the door. Our Peace Garden produces fresh vegetables and herbs that are integrated into the meals we serve to provide better nutrition for our day programmers and residents. The garden is overseen by a part-time Garden Coordinator, but the bulk of the work is done by our residents through ARISE Gardening classes and our garden chore crew. While at Safe Harbor, residents learn how to create an urban garden using recycled material and affordable resources such as seed packets and compost from food scraps. They then learn how to properly harvest and prepare the produce that is grown through our ARISE Cooking and Nutrition classes and during their rotation on our kitchen chore crew. Other class series integrate gardening and nutrition topics by examining the effects of food on mental health, physical health and stress management. Our budgeting class series even goes over cooking on a budget and how growing and storing your own food can lower food costs. Last year, our Peace Garden grew over 950lbs of fresh food. Most of this was used to provide meals to our day programmers and residents. Any excess produce was donated to the Veggie Van to be distributed in food deserts in Easton.

Finally, the creation of our Peace Garden has transformed the atmosphere on our grounds. The beautiful plants and flowers in the garden, sprouting from brightly painted rain barrels, cinderblock beds, and tires create a vibrant space for our residents to relax and reflect. During the warm months, our residents spend much of their time outside sitting in the Peace Garden. We truly believe that this space has a positive impact on the mental health of our clients, and we take every opportunity possible to tap into the powerful calm that our residents derive from this space. In the spring and summer, we hold outdoor meditations in the garden, do art therapy projects to decorate the garden and host garden parties for our residents to enjoy as a reward for a particularly good week. In a place where people are often at their rock bottom and beginning to piece their lives back together, a moment of serenity in a beautiful urban garden can make a person's day, while a healthy, nutrition-packed meal from that same garden can set them up for health and success.

- Population to be served

Our Peace Garden serves homeless and low-income individuals and families who are a) shelter residents or b) attendees of our drop-in day program. These individuals span all ages, races and genders. Both of these programs primarily serve Easton. 100% of the population served falls into or below the low-income measure for our area. Safe Harbor does not discriminate based on religion, race, ethnicity, gender, age, level of disability, mental health diagnosis, gender identity or sexual orientation.

- Goals and measurable outcomes

Goal 1: To provide fresh produce for members of our day program and shelter program
Measurable Outcome: Poundage of Peace Garden produce used in meals served

Goal 2: To teach participants how to grow food in an urban setting

Measurable Outcome: Number of participants who attend Urban Gardening programming and/or serve on our garden chore crew.

Goal 3: To teach participants how to prepare fresh produce

Measurable Outcome: Number of participants who attend Cooking/Nutrition classes and/or serve on our kitchen chore crew.

- Other funding sources

Safe Harbor Easton has written to Home Depot and Lowe's for supply donations and has a $2,000 H.E.L.P. grant in to NCMSA for the 2018 Peace Garden season.

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Sep. 18, 2014, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in AUGUST 2012.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.
